Make the most of your space

With the right know-how and a few tricks you can create a bathroom that really works for you. Here are some tips on placing certain fixtures to maximise your space.

Space explained

Mirrors

For the average mirror, the perfect height is between 152 and 183cm from the floor.

Keep towels close by

Placing a radiator or some hooks about 80cm from your bath or shower will keep towels within arm's reach.

Space to move

Remember to leave a minimum of 70cm of space between your basin and where you step out of the shower or bath.

Toilets

Make sure there's at least 20cm space either side of your toilet and around 40cm at the front.

Drying and dressing

Where possible, have a metre squared space between your shower and basin.

Basins

Place your basin at a comfortable height from the floor. Our basin units have adjustable feet so you can tailor yours to suit.

Remember

When you're ready to design your bathroom, book a free planning appointment at diy.com/roiplanningappointment.

Measure the length, width and height of your room, noting any pipework that's boxed in or under the floor and marking doors and obstacles.

Basins

Whether you need a basin for a busy family bathroom or tiny cloakroom, find one that suits your style and makes your daily routine a little easier.

Semi-recessed basins

Sitting half-in, half-out, a semi-recessed basin is classic and practical.

Countertop basins

A basin that sits directly on the worktop or vanity unit is a modern choice for contemporary bathrooms.

Cloakroom basins

Not solely for cloakrooms, these small basins are space-savers in tiny bathrooms.

Full pedestal basins

Tried and tested, a pedestal basin is a bathroom favourite. The column supports the basin's weight and hides any unsightly pipework.

Remember

Basins with only one tap hole will require a mixer tap, whereas countertop basins without tap holes need to be paired with either wall-mounted or tall taps.

Semi-recessed basins

For a more classic look, choose a semi-recessed basin with our fitted furniture ranges. Designed to suit a more conventional vanity base unit.

Home delivery only.

Baths

Freestanding baths

If you have the room for it, a freestanding bath can be a real centrepiece in a bathroom. There's something quite indulgent too about dissolving into the bubbles of a standalone tub.

Corner baths

Corner baths can be tucked neatly into corners if you're lacking on wall space. They still provide lots of room so there's no compromise on comfort.

Straight baths

The most popular bath shape - it'll fit in the most compact of spaces. Available in both double and single-ended options and in a range of traditional and contemporary styles.

Shower baths

A popular pick, shower baths cleverly provide the relaxation of a soak in the tub with the more practical side of a quick shower. Find L and P shapes to suit your space.

Accessible baths

Walk-in baths are designed with a low profile and anti-slip base. The easy access door makes it a practical choice for those with limited mobility.

Remember

Upgrade to Supercast for a hotter bath every time. Find out more on page 78.

Shower baths

Combining the ideal space for both baths and showers, they come in L or P shapes to provide a large showering area, while offering enough room to lay down during a bath.

Home delivery only.

Taps

Choose your taps by style, whether it's a basin mixer or bath tap option. From traditional to contemporary, find the tap that suits you.

Basin mixer

Mixer taps are compact designs that mix hot and cold temperature. Available with a normal aerator, blade stream, shower effect or waterfall spout.

Basin taps

Pillar tap pairs have a classic look and feel, but are now designed in more modern shapes too. They give you excellent control of achieving your desired water temperature.

Bath taps

From modern filler taps to more traditional pillar pairs, bath taps can be a stylish statement as well as a finishing touch to your tub.

Bath mixer

An elegant popular choice, bath mixer taps require two tap holes for the hot and cold handles, which then meet and mix in the middle at the spout.

Bath shower mixer

Bath shower mixers provide ultimate versatility, with a traditional bath fill alongside a shower handset. They're ideal if you're limited on space.

Remember

A tap aerator adds oxygen to the flow, increasing the pressure and reducing the amount of water you need to use. This nifty attachment simply fits into the tap to help save water and save you money.

Shower enclosures

There are many shower solutions to choose from, but understanding where your shower is going to go first will really help with your decision. Make sure you consider the space needed for the door opening, as well as features like towel rails or any existing pipes, lighting and vents.

Quadrant

Great for smaller bathrooms. The curved corner style works with most bathroom designs and doesn't compromise on showering room either.

Square

Modern and stylish, a square enclosure fits into most bathrooms and has more choice when it comes to doors and frames.

Rectangle

If you have more space to play with, a rectangular shaped enclosure offers more showering room and is more of a statement choice.

Walk-in

Walk-in showers are simple, luxurious and undeniably practical. Unlike conventional styles, they have no runners or hinges to trap dirt and grime.

How much space do you have?

- 1 wall
- 2 panels

- 2 walls
- 1 panel

- 3 walls
- 0 panels

Once you've decided where the shower is going, evaluate your space and what options are available.

Showers

A shower is a pick-me-up in the morning and washes away the little stresses come evening. Find one that boosts the overall look of your space and provides the best shower experience.

Electric shower

An electric shower connects to the cold water supply which is then warmed up by an internal heating element as water passes through. Provides instant hot water on demand.

Power shower

A power shower has a built-in electric pump to boost the flow rate. Ideal for low pressure systems.

Manual mixer shower

A manual mixer shower connects to the hot and cold water supplies and then mixes the water to your selected temperature. Delivers a higher flow rate than an electric shower.

Thermostatic shower

A thermostatic mixer shower offers a consistent showering temperature, even when a tap is on elsewhere in your home.

Remember

Before choosing a shower, understanding your water system is key. If you have limited hot water supply, electric showers are suitable, whereas mixer showers are compatible with high pressure systems.

Electric showers

With features such as silent running, mixed spray shower heads and high pressure pumps, find the electric shower for you.

Towel warmers

Electric towel warmers

An electric towel warmer doesn't run off the central heating, so you can have that single radiator running on its own.

Kudox electric towel warmer

W450 x H1000mm
5060235347238

€144

Dual-fuel towel warmers

Dual-fuel towel warmers are connected to the central heating system, but can also be powered by electricity.

Blyss Pentworth anthracite flat towel warmer

3663602844891

€91

Plumbed towel warmers

These models are heated by the central heating system, so will dry towels while keeping the room warm. They won't operate if the heating is switched off.

Blyss Leyburn chrome towel warmer

W500 x H1100mm
3663602845256

€75

Towel warmer extra options

Thermostat

An integrated programmable thermostat will help save energy while maintaining optimum temperature.

Flat bars

These offer a larger area to hang towels so they dry faster.

Remote controls

Available options to make it easier to set and program your radiator.

Fan function

A radiator with a fan can speed up the heating of the room.

Calculating your power requirements

To calculate the power required for your towel warmer, count 125W for every m<sup>2</sup> in your bathroom (assuming a ceiling height of 2.5m – adjust accordingly if it is higher than this). Also consider the amount of people in your home when deciding the size of your warmer.

Bathroom lighting

Bathroom lighting should transform a bleak room into a relaxing sanctuary, but it should also be safe to use in a wet environment. That's why there are regulations which require all bathroom lighting adheres to certain IP (Ingress Protection) ratings.

A bathroom is made up of different zones so the distance from the water source will determine the type of lighting allowed.

Lighting zones explained

IP67

Zone 0

Inside the bath or shower. Must be IP67 rated.

Zone 1

The area above the bath or shower to a height of 2.25m from the floor. Must be a minimum of IP44 rated or (IP45 if exposed to water jets). IP65 rating is recommended.

Zone 2

The area 0.6m outside the perimeter of the bath and to a height of 2.25m from the floor. Must be a minimum of IP44 rated.

Other zones

Anywhere outside zones 0, 1 and 2 there are no special IP requirements, however, it's recommended any light fittings in other areas should have a rating of at least IP20.

A 30mA RCD must be used. All new and modified electrical installations must comply with the latest IET Wiring Regulations (BS7671) and bathroom lighting products must be installed in accordance with local Building Regulations. If you are in any doubt, contact a qualified electrician.
