Why Choose the 'Ultimate' Lifetime Bath Panel

The Schwan Ultimate bath panels really are the ultimate accompaniment to your bath, not only providing a luxurious contemporary finish to your bathroom, it's probably the only panel you will ever need. The lifetime panel requires no maintenance unless you tire of the colour, in such case you can paint or vinyl wrap to your choice.

The panel is manufactured using the latest technology and is 'unbreakable' in normal use.

It is the only panel on the market that has been designed to be cut and trimmed without losing its strength or integrity. (Patent pending)

Features

- Unique end sockets to lock and locate optional end panels
- Lateral and vertical strengthening ribs
- Vertical ribs assist cutting and ensure this is the easiest panel to cut
- Wide range of colours available
- 100% recyclable
- Lifetime guarantee
