Garden power tools

---

Keep your outdoor space neat and tidy with our range of garden power tools, including petrol, corded and cordless styles. From lawnmowers and trimmers to pressure washers and accessories, these tools make garden maintenance easy.

Battery system

Battery system power tools offer great flexibility, allowing you to move around freely without worrying about things like extension cables and outside power sources. Powered by a battery, these tools produce fewer emissions than petrol tools, and require less maintenance.

Corded

Lightweight and easy to use, corded power tools are an affordable and low-maintenance way to keep your garden tidy. Powered by electricity, these tools don't need fuel or charging, so they can be used for as long as you need them.

Petrol

Petrol power tools offer more power than corded and battery system tools, making them ideal for tackling overgrown grass and navigating rough terrain. This extra power also means they work through tasks quickly and easily, making them a great choice for larger gardens.

Choose your perfect mower

With the different power types and range of features available, it can be difficult to decide which lawnmower is right for you. Start by working out how big your lawn is, then look at the cutting width of each lawnmower. Wider cutting widths will help get the job done quicker, which is great if you have a large area to mow.

Mower types

Hover

Hover mowers are a type of rotary mower that hovers just above the grass surface. They work by creating a cushion of air, meaning they can simply be swept across the lawn. These mowers are lightweight and easy to manoeuvre, making them great for flower beds and borders.

Rotary

Rotary mowers are the most common type of lawnmower. Featuring a blade that rotates on a horizontal plane, these mowers cut grass quickly and effectively. They're durable and easy to use, and can be used on a range of grass types, including longer and rougher patches.

Petrol rotary

Powered by a petrol engine, petrol rotary mowers tend to be more powerful than standard rotary mowers, making them ideal for tackling larger lawns and thick, overgrown grass.

Robot

Take the effort out of garden maintenance. Designed to cut your grass automatically, robot mowers use either a perimeter wire or inbuilt sensors to navigate around your garden, avoiding any obstacles. To explore our range of robot mowers, please visit diy.com

Ride-on

Perfect for big gardens, ride-on lawnmowers give you the freedom to sit back and mow large areas of grass with ease. Powered by a petrol engine, these mowers are available with a range of engine sizes. To explore our range of ride-on mowers, please visit diy.com

Good to know

Nearly all mowers let you adjust the cutting height to suit different seasons and styles of lawn.

It's important to change the cutting height to help keep grass in good condition.

Corded lawnmowers

Ideal for small to medium-sized gardens, corded lawnmowers give you the freedom to mow for long periods, without topping up the fuel or recharging the battery. They're also lightweight and easy to use, and are a lot quieter than petrol mowers.

Drought tolerant

South-facing gardens, especially those away from towns and cities, can be very bright and sunny – which some plants love. Choose Mediterranean natives or plants adapted to hot, dry conditions to create a vibrant garden packed with colour all year round.

Get inspired

Plants that thrive in soil that's naturally parched and free draining include olive trees, irises, lavender, and herbs like rosemary, sage or thyme. Give your plants a helping hand by adding a 5–6cm covering of gravel around them to help them hold onto moisture.

Trachycarpus fortuneii

The fan-shaped leaves of this palm bring an exotic look to a border. Tolerant of dry soil, it requires little maintenance and will live happily planted in the ground or in a container.

Festuca intense blue

Best positioned in a sunny location to bring out its intense blue colour. Festuca is undemanding, working well in a border or planted in a container.

Gaillardia

Large daisy-like flowers add warmth and colour to a border. The bright yellow-orange blooms attract bees and butterflies.

Lawn care

Keep your lawn in top condition with our range of lawn feed, patch repair and weedkillers, designed to support greener and healthier grass.

Westland wheeled drop spreader W630 x H240mm. Ideal for even and precise application of lawn seed. Green plastic 5023377847592 £40.

Attracting wildlife

Create a thriving ecosystem by inviting wildlife into your garden. Consider building a shelter for hedgehogs, adding a bird box or table, and incorporating pollinator-friendly plants to encourage bees.

Go chemical-free

For many years we've tended our gardens with chemical help from insecticides and weed killers. This has upset nature's perfect balance, with bees and butterflies suffering as a result. Organic gardening, without chemicals, helps to restore that precious balance.

What do bees and butterflies need to thrive?

Butterflies need places where they can lay their eggs and where their caterpillars can feed. This could be anything from long grasses to nettles, holly, ivy or thistles. Meanwhile, bees love the nectar-rich flowers of thistles and other 'weeds'.

Buddleia

Buddleia is the perfect food stop for butterflies. The colour and scents brings interest to the garden whilst offering much needed nectar for insects.

Rudbeckia

Rudbeckia provides food for pollinators such as bees and butterflies in summer and autumn. Leave flowers to develop seed heads, which provide food for birds in winter.

Salvia

Loved by bees, the nectar-rich flowers are a haven for these insects. Best planted in a sunny location.

UC4

Suitable if timber will be in direct contact with the ground and/or fresh water (e.g. decking joists and fence posts). Longer lasting and more durable than UC3.

Choose your fencing

As well as securing your outdoor space, fencing can add to your garden's overall style. Whether it's a sleek composite fence or a traditional wooden style, our range of fencing and screening includes everything you need to create the perfect perimeter for your garden.

Composite

Made from a combination of reclaimed wood fibres and recycled plastic, composite fencing is an eco-friendly alternative to wood fencing. The finish is sleek, lightweight and incredibly durable.

Wood

For a traditional feel, you can't go wrong with a wooden fence. This versatile fencing can also be customised, by staining to enhance the wood grain or by painting the boards to add a splash of colour.

Wire

Wire fencing is a quick and easy way to divide and secure your garden. Its versatility makes it great for protecting plants, containing animals, adding security and encouraging climbing flowers.

Screening

Often used in combination with traditional fencing, screening is a great way to add extra privacy to your garden, or for making an existing fence feel more stylish.
